PAY OF HOBLI SCHOOL MASTERS.

To—Officers in charge of District Treasuries and Amildars of Taluks, Circular No. 1093 dated 7th March 1874.

In supersession of existing practice, the Amildars of Taluks are requested to be good enough to prepare a monthly bill shewing in detail the name of every Hobli school master in the Taluk, the name of the Hobli and the rate of pay as intimated to him by the Officer in charge of the District Treasury, with a blank column in which he will take the receipts of the Shekdars or other officials through whom the pay is disbursed. The Amildar will sign the bill at foot, and charge each payment as it is made in his C accounts. When all the payments are made by the Amildar, not later than the 10th or 15th of the month, he will send the bill to the District Treasury as a voucher.

2. The Amildar will keep a duplicate of the monthly bill in a book, taking the receipt of each Shekdar therein, and as a check on those officials the Amildar will not disburse the pay for any month until the Hobli school master's receipt is produced by the Shekdar for the previous month's payment. The receipts must be filed in the Taluk Cutcherry.

3. Forms of bills will be furnished by the Director of Public Instruction.
